Farmer's Market Price Report Stillwater

for Saturday June 25, 2016

Market Comments:

The weather was sunny and humid, but the heat did not deter customers. For the second week sweet corn was available in large quantities and hot weather crops like black eyed peas arrived for the first time, while some vendors still managed to produce cool weather produce like radishes. Many vendors had tomatoes, squash, and zucchini while a few had unique products like large white squash and Galia melons. Live musical entertainment was provided and three sunflower stems were being sold for $5. The next report will be available mid-to-late July. Please Note: Sizes of bunches, cartons, bundles, and other containers used at the farmer's market may vary vendor to vendor.

Farmer's Market Price Report OSU-OKC for Saturday July 23, 2016

Market Comments:

It was a hot and humid morning at the OSU-OKC farmers market, but that did not stop visitors from grabbing their shopping bags and running to the market to see the fresh Oklahoma produce! Summer fruits such as watermelon, cantelope, honey dew and peaches were a big hit! Attendees were able to listen to live music and watch cooking demonstrations as they shopped. Fresh flowers were a very popular item as shoppers could pick and arrange their own bouquets. Please Note: Sizes of bunches, cartons, bundles, and other containers used at the farmer's market may vary vendor to vendor.

Farmer's Market Price Report Stillwater

for Saturday July 23, 2016

Market Comments:

July 23rd was part of Krazy Daze in Stillwater, where local vendors offer special deals and sidewalk sales. The farmers market participated by offering live music by Richelle Sigrist and free face painting. Local honey was available for the first time this summer and many came for the specialty melons like San Juan and Ambrosia that they do not carry in grocery stores. Please Note: Sizes of bunches, cartons, bundles, and other containers used at the farmer's market may vary vendor to vendor.
